ARTICLE I - Name and Mission

- A. This Unit shall be known as “Associated Fire Fighters of Illinois Honor Guard”. The “In-Service” date of this Unit is January 30, 1993.
- B. The Mission shall be to:
 - 1. Promote the Associated Fire Fighters of Illinois, the Locals therein, and the fire service as a whole, to the public, in a positive and proper fashion.
 - 2. Provide, as a line of duty death benefit, dignified, honorable services for fallen AFFI members, their surviving family members, and union brothers and sisters through organization of, and participation in, funeral and memorial services.
- C. The A.F.F.I Executive Board and/or the State Commander may assign additional objectives.

ARTICLE II - Jurisdiction

The AFFI President and Executive Board shall maintain complete jurisdiction over this unit.

ARTICLE III – Membership / Training

Membership

- A. Membership shall be open to all AFFI members in good standing. The member’s local union support and approval is required. Department acknowledgment is strongly suggested and encouraged. Members seeking induction into the HG shall have a letter of approval/support from their local union president and submit it with their registration packet. Subsequent to the induction into the HG, the Honor Guard State Commander may request confirmation of continued support or approval of local members from the local union president. A new member initiation fee shall be determined each year by the AFFI Executive Board and the AFFI Honor Guard Commander and shall be published in the Honor Guard Convention/Induction Ceremony materials.
- B. One must be of Honorable character, as to not bring reproach upon the IAFF, the AFFI or this Unit.

- C. Honor Guard Members shall commit three (3) years to the AFFI Honor Guard and make themselves available for activations within the state of Illinois.
- D. Members must return the convention registration form and the applicable fee in order to remain on the AFFI Honor Guard roster each year. The annual convention cost & maintenance fee shall be determined each year by the AFFI Executive Board and the AFFI Honor Guard Commander and shall be published in the Honor Guard Convention/Induction Ceremony materials.
- E. Effective January 26, 2014, as a benefit to AFFI Honor Guard members only and as long as funds exist; should one of our own die; the AFFI Honor Guard, shall donate with honor, $500.00, to the affected family or to the charity of their choice in the member's name.

Training

This section shall apply to participation eligibility for the following Honor Guard events:

- A. Attendance at, and participation in, the annual AFFI Honor Guard Convention/Induction Ceremony
- B. Eligibility for the reimbursement lottery for attendance to the IAFF Fallen Firefighters Memorial Service in Colorado Springs, CO
- C. Eligibility for the reimbursement lottery for attendance at services outside the state of Illinois as defined in Article XII Section 5.

Active Members

Effective November 1, 2012, and each subsequent year, the following minimum training requirements shall apply to participation eligibility for the events listed in this section:

- A. AFFI Honor Guard members shall attend, and participate in, the prior year's Annual Honor Guard Convention/Induction Ceremony and two (2) AFFI HG District trainings,

OR

AFFI Honor Guard members shall attend three (3) AFFI HG District trainings.

Effective February 7, 2020, participation in the Milwaukee Honor Guard Clinic shall be approved to count as one training towards the training requirement to attend the AFFI Honor Guard Annual Convention.

- a. Members who fail to meet the minimum training requirement listed above for two (2) consecutive years, without extenuating circumstances approved by the State Commander or his designee(s), shall be removed from the Honor Guard roster. Any member that has been removed from the roster due to not completing their trainings for two (2) consecutive years, must wait one (1) year to be reinstated into the guard. The one (1) year shall begin on November 1st after the member has been removed and end on November 1st of the following year. The member will then have to register for convention as a new inductee and attend the new inductee training at that convention. The member will not participate in the induction ceremony but will be re-listed on the roster as a member in good standing within both their district and the guard.
- B. District Commanders shall maintain current/accurate training attendance records.
- C. Members not attending the annual convention shall return their registration packet with their annual maintenance fee in order to remain on the roster. Failure to do so will result in removal from the HG Roster and exclusion from receiving any LODD information sent out from the AFFI Office.
- D. If a member does not submit their annual fee for 2 years and requests to get back into the HG at a later date, the member shall pay a new member fee and be required to attend new member orientation, however the member shall not participate in the new member induction ceremony.
- E. Members on active military service shall have the annual membership fee waived. Proof of military service is mandatory if requested. Training requirements shall be waived on members in active military service.

Retired / Disabled Members

- A. Retired members are exempt from the minimum training requirement, for attendance at the Annual Honor Guard Convention/Induction Ceremony.
- B. Retired members who have not completed the annual training requirements, are not eligible to participate in the reimbursement lottery for attendance to the IAFF Fallen Fire Fighters Memorial Service in Colorado Springs, CO. nor services outside of Illinois.
- C. If the retired member has completed the annual training requirements, they will be eligible for all benefits consistent with all other members.

- D. Retired / Disabled members shall remain a member in good standing within their home Local by becoming an Active Retired Member. If their local does not recognize an Active Retired Member status, members may then join the Illinois Association of Retired and Disabled Firefighters (IARF) in order to remain in the AFFI Honor Guard.

District 8 Members

- A. Members of the honor guard who are in good standing, are allowed to apply for acceptance into District 8 after at least one (1) full year of participation in the honor guard.
- B. In order to be eligible for induction, the member must have completed the required number of drills as a regular member of the honor guard And at least four (4) District 8 drills.
- C. Any District 8 member that does not attend District 8 drills for two (2) years, will be removed from the District 8 roster. Their maintenance in the honor guard shall be subject to their obtaining the required number of drills as a regular member.
- D. After a member has been removed from District 8, in order for them to be eligible to return, they must complete the required number of drills as a regular member And at least four (4) District 8 drills.

ARTICLE IV - Annual Meetings

- A. Yearly training shall be determined by the State Commander, Training Commander, District Commanders and their Drill Captains. Each District shall conduct a minimum of six (6) trainings prior to November 1st of each year.
- B. Training sites shall be rotated, sponsored in part by the individual AFFI Honor Guard member's local, i.e. reserving a training site for full unit participation and appropriate for the time of year and be held at a local in good standing with the AFFI.
- C. For the sake of maintaining order, a Sergeant at Arms shall be appointed by the State Commander for all meetings.

ANNUAL CONVENTION

- A. Attendance at the annual AFFI Honor Guard convention is encouraged and strongly recommended.
- B. At the yearly commanders meeting in October, the commanders are notified of who we will be remembering at the annual convention. Families of the fallen that we are honoring for that year, shall be invited to join the AFFI Honor Guard in remembrance. Whenever the invite is extended, the AFFI Honor Guard shall;
 - 1. Reach out to the local president of the fallen firefighter and ask if they, the stricken local, are able to fulfill the family's needs in order for them to attend the convention.
 - 2. If the local is not able to fulfill all the needs, then the AFFI Honor Guard will, without judgement, award the family a voucher of up to $500 per family to the host hotel. This voucher will be used for the cost of room plus taxes for 1 night, the Saturday evening meal at the Induction Ceremony/Memorial dinner and breakfast on Sunday morning.
 - 3. If the AFFI Honor Guard should experience a high number of LODD families (more than 6) in the current year, the AFFI Command Staff and the AFFI Sec/Treas will evaluate this amount for adjustment.
 - 4. The money will come from the account of the AFFI Honor Guard.
 - 5. If funds decrease to where the AFFI Honor Guard cannot provide a voucher, the number of members chosen to attend the annual IAFF Memorial in Colorado Springs, shall be decreased. The AFFI Honor Guard ceremony is closer to home and would be easier on many of the families to attend.
- C. Effective January 27, 2019, all former AFFI Honor Guard State Commanders, in good standing, shall be invited to attend the annual induction ceremony in recognition of their commitment and dedication to the guard.
 - 1. Charter State Commander Jay Bishop, his spouse and their three (3) daughters shall receive their registration for the AFFI Honor Guard Convention paid for by the AFFI Honor Guard.
