Brothers and Sisters:

We hope everyone is doing well. We want to pass on something that was discussed among the Command Staff at our Commander's Meeting on 7/31.

Tim Moss

We realize that if we have an activation right now, our involvement may be limited. We will have to be creative to honor any brother or sister who loses their life during these unprecedented times. One thing we know is that if we are able to attend services, we will have to practice social distancing and wear face masks/coverings.

To present a uniform appearance and maintain the professional image the AFFI Honor Guard has always displayed, we would like everyone to wear a plain black mask at events we attend. We realize if you don't already have one it might take a few days to get one. That's why we're telling you all the expectation now; so you'll have time to prepare.

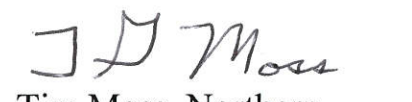

Hopefully we won't have to attend any services anytime soon. But we all know the potential. And we know that when the time comes, as you always have in the past, you will be there to Honor, Cherish, Remember, and Salute anyone we lose in the line of duty.

If you have any questions, please feel free to contact your District Commander, or one of us. Stay Healthy!

Fraternally,

Jay Coburn, Commander
AFFI Honor Guard

Tim Moss, Northern
